Season 1: AFTER DINNER

A comedy by Andrew Bovell
Directed by Tim Riessen

A poignant and hilarious collision of lonely hearts, sex, friendship and Friday night drinks in a suburban pub during the late 1980s. Paula, Monika and Dympie are going to paint the town red... or maybe just a deep shade of embarrassment. Paula's frocked up, it's Monika's first night out in years and Dympie just wants a table with a good view of the band.

Semi-eligible blokes Gordon and Stephen are shaking off the office and revealing their own peccadillos while they're at it. Between the Chardonnay, the oysters and the odd Valium things are bound to loosen up!

Performance Dates: March 7, 8, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22 at 7.30pm and
Sunday Matinees – March 9, 16 and 23 at 2pm.
Show Warning: TBA

Season 2: AT HOME WITH THE SHERIDANS

A dark comedy by Yvette Wall
Directed by Russell Chandler

This gripping dark comedy peels back the layers of suburban respectability to reveal the chaos lurking beneath.

When an affluent couple's home is invaded by two desperate burglars, the lines between criminal and victim begin to blur. As secrets are exposed and alliances shift, all five characters are forced to confront uncomfortable truths about themselves and each other.

This taut, witty drama explores themes of class, addiction, and the masks we wear, asking the provocative question: Are we really so different from those we judge? With sharp dialogue and unexpected twists. At Home with the Sheridans promises to keep audiences on the edge of their seats until the very last moment.

Performance Dates: May 23, 24, 30, 31, June 5, 6 and 7 at 7.30pm and Sunday Matinees - May 25, June 1 and 8 at 2pm.
Show Warning: contains coarse language, violence and drug use.

Season 3: PERFECT ARRANGEMENT

A comedy by Topher Payne
Directed by Samuel Wilson-Farr

It's 1950, and new colours are being added to the Red Scare. Two U.S. State Department employees, Bob and Norma, have been tasked with identifying sexual deviants within their ranks. There's just one problem: Both Bob and Norma are gay, and have married each other's partners as a carefully constructed cover.

Inspired by the true story of the earliest stirrings of the American gay rights movement, madcap classic sitcom-style laughs give way to provocative drama as two "All-American" couples are forced to stare down the closet door.

Performance Dates: August 8, 9, 15, 16, 21, 22, and 23 at 7.30pm and Sunday Matinees – August 10, 17 and 24 at 2pm.
Show Warning: TBA
